HYMN SING AT WHITE CREEK

This gathering will be a monthly carousel of singing at various Churches in our area through the Summer. On May 31st, we will host this songfest at 5 pm. There will be fellowship to follow, and we need your help in providing cookies, cakes, and other treats. Please speak to Beverly for details.

LADIES’ BIBLE STUDY

The Ladies’ Bible Study meets at 9:30 A.M. on Tuesday. We have heard reports of the wonderful experience the women are having, studying through the Books of Daniel and Esther. Please don’t miss this opportunity to learn more about our God, and His love for His people.

MEN’S BIBLE STUDY

Men’s Bible Study will meet on Thursday, at 5:30 P.M. We are freelancing through important parts of Scripture, finding out what God desires of true disciples, and growing in fellowship with one another. You are invited to join us for this event.

PRAYER LIST

We invite you to take 1 Thessalonians 5:17, “Pray without ceasing,” to heart every day.

CONSIDER THIS

I am trying to organize my thoughts for the weekend. We, who live close to Wisconsin Dells, are aware that it is Memorial Day weekend. Any thoughts of a leisurely drive through the Dells have evaporated over the weekend. Every year the Dells becomes a madhouse of fun and games for people of the great Midwest, and from all over the world. We may not have a Disneyland, but we seem to have almost every other attraction available to mankind. Beverly and I have tried to avoid this huge conglomeration of population for many years during the summer months, and plan on the same this year.

Except, this year we have unique opportunities to reach people from all over the world with the Gospel, without going over 50 miles from home. We will have opportunities to share the Gospel of Christ, through word and deed, by our presence not far from home. Instead of sending an invitation to those visitors to the Dells to "Come and see" us in White Creek on Sunday morning at 10:30, we will have the opportunity to "Go and Be" the Church where THEY are almost any day of the week. This is the striking relevance of the Great Commission of Jesus Christ Himself.

If we really are Christ followers, Christians, then we must go where He sends us, and the Scriptures are full of directions and illustrations that this is what

He has in mind for us. We are in the right place, at the right time, with the right message that will transform the lives of those who hear our voices. The fact that Jesus Christ lives in us, moves in us, and speaks through us is undeniable. He has given us a mandate to deny ourselves and follow Him. This is not a task or a duty, it is a profound privilege granted to those who have been redeemed by the blood of the Lamb, and filled with the Spirit of God. Galatians 2:20 says,

"I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me."

1 Thessalonians 5:24 says, "Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it."

If we see this as duty which we must perform for God, we will see ourselves lacking the means by which we can succeed. If we recognize the great privilege of the Life of Christ operating in us, we are free to be used as He sees fit. We surrender to His will providing what we need to fulfill His purpose.
