CONSIDER THIS

Years ago, as a 9 year old boy, I went to a summer camp out in the wilderness. We slept in old canvas world War 2 surplus tents, we ate simple food cooked over open campfires, we swam in a long abandoned swimming pool and rinsed off afterwards in a little creek that ran through the meadow. The nearest rest room was about 15 miles down a crooked, dusty road, so we used a dilapidated outhouse, and washed up in a dishpan warmed over the campfire. We had no TV, radio, telephones, sound equipment, or music other than a beat up guitar. It was a week out of heaven because we heard about missionaries and evangelists who were living their lives to preach the Gospel to people around the world. What a glorious week! I was not the only 9 year old kid from my Church who surrendered to missions that week. I thought God was calling me to China, but He has led me to Wisconsin instead, Different people; same need. To whom has God called you? Pastor Sam
