CONSIDER THIS

Fall is rapidly approaching, and the last days of 2026 are almost in sight. No matter what is going on in the world, the days keep falling off the calendar, like leaves from the trees. We would love to think that we are utilizing this time with which God has blessed us to the fullest extent, but for most of us, we know we miss opportunities here and there. However, we cannot count the missed blessings as we count the falling days, we must count the blessings which God has placed in our way, instead. He keeps on blessing, and keeps on giving us the adventure of following Jesus every day.

This week is another one of those adventures. The Adams County Fair is in town, and we're going out to meet this adventure. The dictionary says that an adventure is an exciting, unusual, and often risky experience or journey into the unknown. Why don't you join us for an adventure day this week, and see what happens?
